

Ilaria Alpi journalistic television prize entry form 2007

The competition is open to special press reports and enquiries for the television about civil and social commitments (solidarity, non-violence, justice, human rights, employment).

There will be different sections A, B, C, D, as follows:

A Press reports broadcast on TV news and special features (max.duration 4') - 1500 euro

B Press reports broadcast on other TV programs different from TV news (duration between 4' and 15')
- 1500 euro

C Press reports and enquiries broadcast on other TV programs different from TV news (min duration 15')
-1500 euro

D Press reports broadcast on local and regional televisions - 1500 euro

As for the sections A, B, C, D, for journalists of Italian broadcasters, the reports will be judged for their journalistic value. The lack of sophisticated equipment will not be a selective factor.

Miran Hrovatin Prize For Italian and European cameramen. The reports will be judged for the proposed images. The Miran Hrovatin Prize amount is 1500 euro.

Youth Prize For all those shots made by journalists under 32 years old. No subscription is necessary because the journalists 32 and under years old taking part to the competition automatically participate to Youth Prize. The jury of this Prize is composed entirely by Bologna University students: Corso di Comunicazione Giornalistica, Corso di Laurea in Scienze della Comunicazione, Facoltà di Lettere.

Europe Prize For European journalists. The European TV press offices or the journalists themselves can send to the Prize Organization up to three TV reportages about social subjects. The film must be in their original language with English subtitles and their duration must be minimum 12'. The English dialogues list must be enclosed. Europe Prize's amount is 2000 euro.

Production Prize For Italian reports lasting more than 12' and less than 50' and never broadcasted from national broadcasters.

The jury of the Prize will be composed by Italo Moretti, Ilaria Alpi Prize's Jury President, by the Rai Tre Director Paolo Ruffini, by Rai News 24 Director Corradino Mineo, by the President of the Emilia Romagna Journalist Association Gerardo Bombonato and Paolo Serventi Longhi, General Secretary of the Italian Press Federation. The Production Prize amount is 10.000 euro and it will broadcast by RAI NEWS 24 and Rai Tre.

Critics Prize A group of television critics will freely bring five special surveys each to the jury's attention. These reports can be also made by journalists not participating to the competition, but the winner will be excluded from the competition in other sections. The report that will receive the highest number of recommendations will get the Critics Prize of 1500 euro. The critics group will be composed by: Alessandra Comazzi (La Stampa), Antonio Dipollina (Repubblica), Roberto Levi (Il Giornale), Mirella Poggialini (Avvenire), Norma Rangeri (Il Manifesto), Maurizio Turrioni (Famiglia Cristiana), Giovanni Volpi (Tv Sorrisi e Canzoni).

Premio "Il lavoro che non si vede" Prize for all those shots dealing with the employment matters. The jury of the Prize will be composed by Italo Moretti, Piero Marrazzo, Enrico Gasbarra, Walter Veltroni, Paolo Serventi Longhi, Guglielmo Epifani, Paolo Beni, Giuseppe Giulietti. No subscription is necessary because the journalists taking part to the competition automatically participate to this Prize. "Il lavoro che non si vede" Prize is awarded by Nidil-Cgil, Arci, Lazio Region, Articolo 21.

All the reports taking part to the competition must be made after January 2006, and must have been already broadcast except reports participating to the production prize.

All the reports must be sent on Betacam support, or DV Cam, or Mini Dv and a DVD copy must be enclosed.

The works in competition must present a completely filled in and signed entry form downloadable from the website, the curriculum vitae and a short synopsis of the film.

All the stuff is to be sent to:

Segreteria organizzativa Premio Ilaria Alpi
c/o Comune di Riccione - Villa Lodi Fè via delle Magnolie 2 - 47838 Riccione (Rn)

tel. ++39.0541.691640

Fax: ++39.0541.475803

www.ilariaalpi.it

info@ilariaalpi.it

Only the shots arrived by April 14th 2007 at midday will be accepted. There is no inscription fee.

Each competitor can present no more than one shot. It is also possible to send more works not competing, that could be projected during the event. The works given by the editorial offices will be accepted as well.

Prizes will be awarded according to the unquestionable judgement of the jury, that will be presided by Italo Moretti and composed by Ettore Mo, Luca Ajroldi, Alessandro Banfi, Gerardo Bombonato, Claudio Brachino, Angela Buttiglione, Emilio Carelli, Antonio Di Bella, Emilio Fede, Giovanna Lio, Mauro Mazza, Paolo Meucci, Corradino Mineo, Roberto Morrione, Paola Palombaro, Antonello Piroso, Sandro Provvionato, Gianni Riotta, Roberto Scardova, Andrea Vianello, Romano Tamberlich.

The jury of the Miran Hrovatin Prize will be composed by Italo Moretti, Luca Ajroldi and the cameraman Stefano Paolillo, Gianfranco Rados, Claudio Speranza.

The Ilaria Alpi Award is authorized to:

Reproduce and broadcast pictures and frames taken from reports presented at the Award in publishing and advertising of the Award.

Produce and broadcast a prom CD Rom/Dvd including a shot of 3' maximum length (of each report) presented at the Award.

To use the press reports presented at the Award for a 3' maximum length each one, within a tv programme produced and edited by the Award itself and broadcast by local and national tv nets with informative and promotional aim.

To screen the reports during Festivals, debate and promotional meetings in agree with the authors.

To use on the web site www.ilariaalpi.it, as a prom, a 30" maximum length of each report presented at the Award.

The reached works will not be given back and will be collected in the archive of the Ilaria Alpi Observatory with conservative, educational, and popular aim (reference and loan).

Get available the selected shots to streaming on the web site www.ilariaalpi.it (except for Production and Europe prizes).

The journalistic television prize Ilaria Alpi will take place in Riccione (Italy) on June 7th, 8th, 9th 2007.